“ I first met Orville in 1968 at a NASCAR Race in Trenton, NJ. My father had purchased tickets from Orville for me. My father Charley Corey worked for many years with both Orville and his father Bob. I found Orville to be a true gentleman and my father had utmost respect for he and his father. Truly a great family! Dave Corey, Lake Ariel, PA.

“ Cousin Orville was a Special cousin, his parents were brother and sister same as my husband’s Stuart Parents were brother and sister married.

So they were more like brothers than cousins.

When we went by Woodstock Va. we always stopped and spend time with cousin Orville Price.

We shared many memories.

May his memory be eternal ~

“ I only met Mr Price (Pop) several times at Candy's Diner on Sunday when he was there with Al, but he had such a great sense of humor and I loved chatting with him. I know how much he loved his family and he was a true gentleman and will be missed.
