“ Dear Roger and your family, Sylvia and I are thinking about you today. Pat was special to us as well. Over the past year we have been praying for the Lord to strengthen both of you. She has entered the gates of heaven and rejoiced to see her Savior. May Jesus be with you in this difficult time and bring you joy in the days ahead. We love you and look forward to seeing you when we return

“ Roger, Kristy, & Teresa, No words can say how much we loved Pat, she was a wonderful loving lady that I considered my second mother. She loved me and my children and took us under her wing because she knew we missed our mother and grandmother so very much. The day I heard of her passing time stood still for me. We will keep all of you in our prayers and we love you.
