“ I was very sorry to hear about Patsy. I grew up on the farm directly below hers and remember her painting my fingernails when I was little. She was 6 years older than me and my sister and I thought she was so grown up. I can remember when she was dating Frankie and when they got engaged and how excited we were about that. Since I haven't lived in Woodstock since I was 18 I haven't seen her a lot over the years but did see her occasionally when I came to visit my family. She always had a smile for everyone. She will be missed.

“ My deepest sympathy is given to all the family. Patsy was a delightful person to be around. We were introduced to one another by her sister, Imogene, many years ago. Every time I met Patsy in a store or restaurant, we would stop and talk and catch up on the family. My thought and prayers are with all the family and friends.

“ Patsy ,
You were always the sweetest lady to me. I will never forget the Easter that Aunt Sally had made me a yellow flowered dress for Easter Sun. Service, but I didn't have shoes that would measure up to the beauty of that dress. You were working at Leggett at the time and when you came home that evening to the farm YOU brought me the most beautiful patten leather shoes I'd ever seen. You said, that a pretty girl ,and a pretty dress must have the prettiest shoes. I had never had anything that fine in my life. I will forever remember your kindness and loving hugs you shared w me through my childhood. You defiantly were the finest of all the Gems. Keep sparkling beautiful ❤️ Heaven just got A little brighter. 🙏

“ My deepest sympathy on the death of Patsy to all her family and friends. I have great memories of Patsy, she was one of the Browntown girls and we all had a great time. Every Friday evening we would meet and go out to dinner somewhere then to Browntown for some good music and lots of fun.
