

Pauline Marie Dellinger

December 4, 1932 - December 16, 2022

With great sadness we announce the passing of Pauline Marie Richard Dellinger on December 16, 2022. She recently celebrated her 90th birthday on December 4, 1932. Pauline was born in Toms Brook Virginia to the parents of Marvin Richard and Edna Ritenour Richard. She was married in Toms Brook in 1954 to her late husband Stanley Odell Dellinger. Pauline was a sister to the late Maynard and Colin Richard. One of Pauline's teenage jobs was the switch board operator in Toms Brook which she loved telling stories about knowing all the gossip in town. Later, she was a nurse and worked in the Winchester Virginia Hospital. After having 2 children, she got her master's degree from James University Madison and became what she is best remembered for: Strasburg High School librarian. She loved reading and always had a book with her. She also traveled around the United States and Mexico and overseas to England and Europe. She is survived by her 2 children David Dellinger of Jacksonville and Debra Funkhouser of Strasburg along with her grandchildren Daniel Funkhouser, Rachel Funkhouser, and Nicole Dellinger. There will a graveside service at River View Cemetery on Monday, December 26, 2022 at 11:00 A.M. Cemetery Details RiverView Cemetery Strasburg, VA 22657 Previous Events Service DEC 26. 11:00 AM (ET)RiverView Cemetery Strasburg, VA 22657

Tribute Wall

RR

“ My deepest sympathy to David and Debra and families for your loss of your mother. I have kind memories of her at SHS in the library. She always was so helpful in finding references for class assignments. God Bless.

Randy Ruffner - December 22, 2022 at 12:00 AM

KD

“ Mrs. Dellinger was my favorite librarian - ever. She was kind, friendly and helpful. I have thought of her often over the years and hoped she was doing well. My sympathies to her family and friends. So blessed to have known her.

Kyna Daigle - December 22, 2022 at 12:00 AM