“ A great, unique, inspiring soul. Phillip could assemble, craft, create, fix virtually anything. He knew the coolest, most astounding facts. He could pick up any phone and use its camera to make better photos than you ever could. He could sit in silence with you and watch any movie and give great thoughtful critique of it. His dreams were constant and far-reaching, despite whatever financial quandary he was in. He had so much more to give in this life. I always was amazed at how even in the darkest of moments he was able to convey a deeper hope, an inspiring message, an intriguing idea. I was hoping to reconnect with him at some point, and the finality of this is heartbreaking . But I'm truly thankful for the great moments we shared together from 2013-14. Goodbye Phillip, and be at peace my friend.
