

Polly Ann Helsley

July 22, 1934 - October 10, 2022

The staff of Heishman Funeral Home would like to send condolences to the family of Mrs. Polly Helsley.

Polly Ann Helsley, 88, of Woodstock, went home to be with the Lord in her home on October 10th, 2022, in Woodstock. Polly was born on July 22nd, 1934, in Strasburg, VA to the late Harilla Strosnider and Harry Nicholas. Polly is preceded in death by her husband, Herman Ramsey Helsley, and a sister, Betty Jane Ringer. Polly is survived by a daughter, Letha Rush, and husband Jerry, two granddaughters, Lora Turner and husband Joey, Kimberly Hoover and husband Hank, great grandchildren Whitney Manich and husband Evan, Cecily Kline and husband Mike, Wesley Yankey and fiancé Holly, Hank Hoover Jr., and Ramsey Hoover, great-great grandchildren Kaylee, Savannah, Bella, Penelope, Madison, Baer, and Rhett, and a nephew Rick Ringer and wife Donna Lynn. Polly was a member of the St. Luke Lutheran Church and began attending Antioch Church in recent years. Polly had an amazing work ethic, after working at various jobs she eventually owned 3 of her own apparel shops, "Mix and Match", helped to run her husband's construction company "Helsley Builder's", then going on to work at "Merillat" for 24 years, all while faithfully caring for her disabled husband. To know Polly was to know unconditional love, she was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. Serving her family and caring for them was most important to her. Those who knew Polly knew a person full of kindness, joy, and wit, she truly made this world a better place, and she will be missed forever. Polly enjoyed traveling, being with her family, and had a strong love for the Lord. Polly's favorite scripture was Isaiah 26:3 You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you. Pallbearers will be Hank Hoover Sr., Joey Turner, Teddy Helsley, Evan Manich, Mike Kline, and Brandon Davis. Honorary Pallbearers will be Wesley Yankey, Hank Hoover Jr., and Ramsey Hoover. Funeral services will be held at Antioch Church on October 14th at 2 pm, the viewing will be prior at 1 pm. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Antioch Church.

“ Sincere condolences to Pollys family. I met Polly while working at Merillatt many years ago. I was fortunate to see her on any occasions since then. She was such a sweet lady. Always looked so pretty and I don't recall her ever not having that contagious smile on her face. I will miss seeing her around. God bless.
