

Preston ""Brad"" Dennison

January 2, 2018

Preston Eugene ""Brad"" Dennison, 78, of New Market, passed away Saturday morning, Dec. 30, 2017, at his home. Brad was born April 27, 1939, in Portageville, Mo., and was a son of the late Charles Bob and Leatha Marie Fisher Dennison. He was a retired painter and cook. He served in the Army from 1958 to 1960. Brad was a charter member of the New Market Fraternal Order of Eagles, Airie No. 4264 and the Mount Jackson Moose Lodge. He is survived by three daughters, Sheila Hall of Virginia and Melissa L. Logsdon and Margaret A. Thomas, both of Missouri; two sons, Steve Smith and Preston Dennison Jr.; siblings, Charles Dennison, Sarah Tusing, C.B. Dennison and Sharon Goodloe; and multiple grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by a sister, Faith Marie Tipton, and a brother, Rick Dennison. A memorial service for Brad will be held at a later date at the New Market Fraternal Order of Eagles. Cremation arrangements are entrusted to Theis Funeral Chapel in New Market.
