

Priscilla LeVasseur Williamson

June 23, 2015

Priscilla LeVasseur Williamson, 94 passed away on June 21, 2015. Priscilla ""Pris"" was born on May 3rd, 1921 in Caribou, Maine. She was the daughter of the late Napoleon and Rose Levesque LeVassuer. She moved to Washington D.C. in around 1940 where she met and married Charles Williamson, a young Marine from North Carolina. They remained married until his death in 2009. Pris and Charles retired to Woodstock in 1979. Pris is survived by her 2 children, Robert (Bob) and Laurie; their spouses, Jane and Bob and 3 grandchildren, Kathryn, Dean, and Michael. Pris was a homemaker, a good cook and a very talented craftsperson. She will be remembered for her big smile and her large personality.