“ Randolph became our beloved uncle when he married our Aunt Jayne. We loved his love for Jesus and we are thankful he encouraged us to read the Bible through each year. He read it through several times a year. I have missed our conversations sharing testimonies about how God has blessed so even in the trials. His books of poems are fun to read. He was so generous supporting missionaries and pastors. May Knowing he is resting in the arms of his beloved savior Jesus brings comfort to Kevin and his family.
