“ Becky was always a very sweet lady. I have fond memories of her going back to the days when we used to sled ride on the hill behind Cook's Exxon in Woodstock ('70s). Through the years up to us riding with with Dan & Becky until she was not able to anymore. Good memories! Prayers of God's comfort and peace to Dan and family.

Knowing Becky and Dan for over 50 years. My heart goes out to Dan and family. Becky and I became friends when our husbands was stationed at Okinawa Japan. Two young mothers a way from our families we found long lasting friendship. Becky was kind helpful and always lot of fun times. I can remember her infectious laugh and love for Her Dan . As the years went by our letters and phone visits news of births sad news marriages grand children and a surprise visit to Missouri. Prayers for Dan and Chuck and family Amy and her family.I will miss my dear friend.
