“ Aunt Rosie, Brian and Gary,

I was so saddened to hear about Uncle Richard's death. As we all know, he is not really my Uncle but I have always thought of him as one. I shall always cherish the memories of childhood on the farm(s), at Orkney, ground-hog hunting, Saturday night dinners with the pinochle games, fishing on the river and the "frogs in the bathtub". Uncle Richard was always quiet and you just knew he was kind, loving and fun. I never, ever remember him raising his voice, he was just that patient. A good husband, father, grandfather and man. He will be missed.

*My love to you and all your families !!
