“ To Amanda & the girls & to Ricky's mom: We are so sorry for your loss. We will miss Ricky & his kindness & friendship. Whenever we would come to Woodstock and listen to Ricky and Amanda perform you would always welcome us and treat us like your most special friends. I remember on one occasion Ricky backed me up on a Beatles song requested by Amanda. The song was "Don't let me down". To us Ricky will always be the one who would never let anyone down. Rest in peace our friend and in the words of Bob Dylan "I'll remember you when I've forgotten all the rest." Love to you, Amanda ! Neil & Gail

“ Mandy, It's been some time since I have seen you all, but I want you to know that I am saddened to hear of your loss. Ricky put the G in Gentleman, and was just as Good as Good could ever get...In which you certainly know... I recall you coming into his world and the happiness between you two just FILLED THE ROOM!! (Hungry Dog Cafe') I am sure he is being welcomed by most of our friends and family that have passed on before he took road home. I just want you to know that this time will be tough, and that's when the tough get going. All my love to you and your girls & the rest of the Wilkin's family & brotherhood!! Prayers for strength and light are headed your way! God Bless, Darlene

“ The entire Shenandoah community was truly blessed to have had Ricky Wilkins as a true positive influence. I will miss his music, his dry sense of humor, his wit, his sly grin..... He loved his family and music so. My deepest condolences to Amanda, Lilly, and Maddie, and to all family and friends. Prayers and light to all of you for comfort. His passing breaks my heart for you, but you will meet again.

“ Amanda and Daughters: Please accept our condolences on the passing of your beloved husband and father. We hope that you and your girls will take comfort in knowing that Ricky lives in your hearts. Ricky was a bright and shining star in the musical firmament, and his loss diminishes us all. We were privileged to know Ricky and always enjoyed seeing and hearing him play the keys. His decades of experience and dedication to perfection resulted in bravura performances. Ricky was truly one of the most talented "Men of Rock." Bob and Dee “ Ricky, husband to my dear cousin Mandy, was always willing to step up at our family reunions. He was one of the guys who would volunteer to 'model' aprons that Mandy's grandmother had made for our annual auction. He made it so much fun! I wish I would have had a chance to get to know him better. He made Mandy happy and gave her 2 beautiful little girls to love. ?? Mandy, we send love, hugs and kisses to you and the girls. I know it will be very hard to press on, but I believe your sweet spirit and strong will, as well as the life memories you shared with Ricky, will give you the strength and courage to continue 'making music' in your life. Love you dearly, “ Ricky, the tears come to my eyes like they did when my brother passed away. Ricky was a brother, a friend, a clown, a lover...not a fighter and one of the best people that ever walked on earth. Ricky, glad to have been your friend.
