“ I am so sorry for your loss. My mother has been gone for some time but I still remember the grief thatli suffered. I found reading the Bible has helped me through the years. I thought at this time I could share a scripture or two that may be comforting to you. There is an account at, John 11:11-14 that holds out hope for all that have died. Jesus had the power to bring back a dead person named Lazarus. Than he gave him to his family and friends ,and all joy broke out! Jesus when he is king ,will start to do this for all of our loved ones. It is so encouraging to read Act 24:15 , it eases the loss , for me because I will see my mom again. I hope you can read it again and again in the hard days ahead. Sincerely Your, Barb
