“ On Lord I am so very sorry to see my good friend has gone to be with our Lord and savior. Bob was so helpful for me when I had no way to work. And he picked me up every morning and drove me to Leesburg va. We would conversate about about how much we cherish our family. He was such a blessing to me. I will never forget his kindness and support in my worst days. I remember the day he retired and was so happy he could spend time with his family. What a Blessed life he had! RIP Bob you will love in my heart forever!
