“ We were neighbors for quite a few years before she moved to the mountains.

She was always a cheerful and such a positive person, lifted your mood when you needed it. She was there for you! I am truly saddened by the news.

Chris, my prayers and thoughts are with you and your wife!

“ Ruth was a friend of mine for many years. We worked together in the school system before her retirement and occasionally kept in touch via phone after she moved from the NVA area.
Ruth always expressed a great enthusiasm for life and could make me laugh even on the the cloudiest day. She was real trooper dealing with her many challenges in life. We spoke just last week. She seemed cheerful and said that she was feeling better healthwise.

She truly loved Christopher and Bethany, and they were a blessing in her life.

I have fond memories of some of the times we shared.

Ruth was a special lady and will not be forgotten.
