“ My heart is broken in the passing of such a very dear friend. She was more like a sister to me. Had so many good laughs with her and enjoyed many meals at her table. She always said make your self at home and you never left her house without a hug and be careful on your way home. She loved talking about her family and how much she loved them but most of all she talked about going to heaven someday to see her Saviour and her husband Ronnie whom she loved and missed so very much. Her body was getting tired and she was ready to go home to heaven. I can only imagine the rejoicing when she took her last breath here and her first breath in heaven with Jesus and all her loved ones present. Got much more to go to heaven for now. Family my prayers are many for comfort to you all but YOU CAN meet her again for eternity if your heart is right with God like hers was. Love you all.
