“ Dear Matt, I'm not sure if you will receive this message, but this is the only way I now how to express my profound sadness on a chance reading about your beloved Mom's passing. I know it's very late, but I only read about it tonight when I did a search of her name and was so shocked to find an obituary on her passing instead. I knew your parents when they were expatriates here in Kuala Lumpur. Suzanne was the founding President of the International Women's Association, which she and four other ladies founded in 1988. She spearheaded the whole process of registration and weathered the storm through the teething months. Today, 29 years later, the IWA is going strong, with thanks to her able leadership at the beginning. She steered our Association forward toward our goals of today. I can still remember going to her home on Jalan Madge for our Board Meetings and adjourn for a meal or snack or whatever she prepared for us afterwards, followed by fellowship and camaraderie. Suzanne was such a charismatic, energetic, vivacious, gregarious lady and was so loved by everyone who knew her. Her compassion for others was boundless. She is gone now, but her legacy lives on and will certainly not be forgotten. Please accept our deepest condolences on your beloved mom's passing. I was honored to be a founding member of the Association and her friend. In deepest sympathy, Crystal Raymond Ibrahim
