

Sybilla Clara Kisamore

July 15, 1920 - March 5, 2013

Sybilla Clara Kisamore, 92, of New Market, died Tuesday, March 5, 2013 at her home.

Sybilla was born July 15, 1920 in Whitmer, WV, the daughter of the late George Alonzo and Laura (Hedrick) Allen. She and her brothers were raised by their single mom since their father died in 1925. Sybilla worked on the family farm, raised and canned vegetables and walked to the Brethren church faithfully each Sunday. She married the late Edward "EJ" Kisamore and lovingly raised eleven children. Her door was always open and guests always got a meal when they came to her house. If they didn't eat, Sybilla felt insulted. She was kind, worked hard, persevered and never gave up.

She is survived by 5 daughters: Gay Botkin, Weyers Cave, Ruby Miller, Grottoes, Ronna Bennett, Mt. Solon, Barbara Shoemaker and Carolyn Bly, both of Edinburg, 6 sons: Ray Kisamore, Roy Kisamore, both of Churchville, Rex Kisamore, Staunton, Roger Kisamore, Quicksburg, Dolan Kisamore, New Market, and Kenton Kisamore, Maurertown, 26 grandchildren, 46 great-grandchildren, 6 great-great grandchildren and her faithful dog, Weegee.

In addition to her parents and husband, Sybilla was preceded in death by her brothers, Willard Alonzo Allen and Archie Russell Allen, grandsons, Jerry Botkin, Mike Puffenbarger and Timmy Shoemaker, and great-grandson, Robbie Kisamore.

A graveside service officiated by Pastor George Bowers will be held at 11am, Saturday, March 9 at Mt. Jackson Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 6-8pm Friday at Valley Funeral Service, Bowmans Crossing.

Memorial contributions may be sent to Antioch Church of the Brethren Building Fund or the Shenandoah Co. Animal Shelter.
