Tracy met her husband, Lu, while teaching high school at her alma mater. A few years, daughters, and moves later, Tracy went back to school and spent the rest of her career as a librarian. “ To say we will miss Tracy is an understatement. Tracy was a kind and gentle soul, and my life was richer knowing her. We met in College and we were fortunate that we got to spend a long weekend with her this Spring. Rest in Peace dear Trace, we love you always.

“ "Tracy" Teresa Krug always had a smile, even when you popped in announced in her office with crazy questions. The Strasburg Community Library will miss her enthusiasm and dedication to all of her libraries. Blessings and peace.

“ Luis, Luisa, Maria, and family, I am incredibly saddened to hear of your loss. I worked for Tracy in the SHS Library for three years and they were good times. Tracy was an absolute sweetheart to work with. She was such a sweet and kind lady and friend. I had texted her at the end of July and she told me how proud she was of her girls and that she loved living in the Shenandoah Valley area. She came back to Oklahoma in 2017 and we met in Broken Arrow for lunch at Schlotskys. We had the best visit. It was so good to see her again. You are all in my prayers. She will missed so much. Heaven gained a very special angel.

“ Oh Luisa, I am so sorry. Your mother was a beautiful soul. So many sweet memories of your mom when we were in school. Thinking of you, your dad, and your sister.

“ Lu, Luisa, Maria and Mike, we are so, so sorry to hear this. So saddened. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. We are unable to make the celebration of her life because we will be out of state. Tracy was one of the kindest, sweetest, gentlest, smartest people I know. I still remember her watching over little Luisa on our wedding day. Our prayers are for peace. We know she's already in Heaven. God Bless you all.

“ Trace and I met on our very first day at St. Mary's College of Maryland, graduated together 4 years later, and 42 years later were still celebrating our friendship. Tracy was always so caring and thoughtful. Distance didn't allow us to be physically close as often as we would have liked, but we were always close in heart and spirit. I have so many great memories, but I will miss her immensely. Prayers for Lu, Luisa, Maria and the rest of your family.
