“ Granddaddy, Its taken me five years to be able to finalize this. I know your in a place where you would never look back here and read this, but I have to write this and tell you, I miss you more than you will ever know! Life has changed in so many ways since you transitioned. One thing that will never change is my love and respect for you and how I rest assured that you are where you are supposed to be. The last thing you told me before you passed was that, "It was supposed to be that way" and even though your memory had failed you - YOU knew I was your granddaughter and I thank GOD FOR THAT! I will LOVE YOU Forever!

“ As a child I looked forward to Saturday mornings. The smell of coffee and cigarettes would wake me up. I would run down the hall and here that deep voice and I knew Granddaddy and Sandy had come to visit. Oh how exciting those times were. From camp Granddads, with all the cousins having sleep over's in the basement from taking trips to the gas station to buy us penny candy from long talks on the porch and on his lap and truck rides on back country roads this is the true definition of a relationship with a Grandfather. My 37 years of life consist of wonderful loving memories of my Granddad. Granddaddy had the best posture of any man I know and he absolutely loved his family, country, and was up to date on politics concerning our government, he was serious and firm but his smile could steal your heart. Its very hard to wrap up a lifetime of a relationship in a small paragraph because I could go on forever about him. All though Granddad was not perfect he was a good man with high morals and values and he loved the Lord. Loving the Lord was the best gift Granddaddy ever gave me. Granddaddy I love you with all my heart and I have faith that I will be with you again. I know you are of sound mind and in no pain, rejoicing with your Mom, Dad and brothers. I'm very blessed and I thank the Good Lord he choose Theadore Ray Curran to be one of my Patriarchs and men in my life. One of Granddaddy's favorite songs was Blue Eyes crying in the Rain by Willie Nelson and today my blue eyes are crying. Love always, your Granddaughter, Desiray aka Beeper...
