“ I first met Tommy at a church training event in the early 1980's. From that day forward he became a friend and mentor, and one of the great patrons of Camp Overlook. Tommy was a part of every construction project at the camp for the next 25 years. He served as the project manager for the camp's Blessings Lodge which opened a whole new adult ministry for the church in the late 1990's. He is missed by many!
