“ To the Family of Aunt Mae, There are just no words to express the deep sadness I am feeling in my heart due to Aunt Mae's passing. She was certainly one of my favorite Aunts. I have such wonderful memories of her whenever Daddy, Mother & I would come to visit her and Uncle Norman and the rest of the family (when I was a young girl). I will always remember her kind, sweet, loving smile and personality. I am so sorry that I couldn't travel to be there with you all for the Funeral Service, but I hope you know that you ALL were certainly in my thoughts and prayers and you will continue to be for a very long time. May God bless each and every one of you during this very difficult time and always. All my Love, Virginia (Jenny) --- (Ernie's daughter)

“ To The WHOLE Turner Family, There are no words that we can say to help take away the pain you are feeling. As you know the pain never really goes away, but in time gets a little easy to live with. Aunt Mae will always be in our hearts and with all the good memories we have, she will live on. She is at peace now and with Uncle Norman, Aunt Emma, Uncle Charles, my dad and many others. Please know that all of you are in our thoughts and prayers. Stay Strong. Love Debbie and Bill
