“ I lived next door to Violet and I always love going over and visiting with her. She was a lot of fun. I drove her to Colorado one year or two see her son and we had a really good time. She'd never driven that far and she went in the back into my truck and went to sleep while we drove through Kansas and she said she never ever wanted to see Kansas again and next time she went out west she would definitely do a fly. I really miss Mount Jackson. Our birthdays are one day apart so we always kind of celebrated them together she was always kind to me.
