“ I remember Wayne from Fort Valley ball games, his singing in his church choir, stopping in at the garage to talk to Tom. He liked to kid around and his laugh would have you laughing with him. I think he would have given his shirt if you needed it.. Prayers for family and friends. Tom McClanahan, Mary McClanahan and Wesley and Shirley Neff

“ I will never forget Wayne making apple cider out at the Museum in Fort Valley. I also remember Wayne being at church every Sunday morning and that big booming voice welcoming me. Wayne was a swell person and had a heart that was as big as he was! I will miss him and I send my deepest sympathies to everyone - especially Debbie!!!
