“ I am holding the Golladay family in prayer. Billie Golladay is the kindest sweetest soul and would give you the shirt of his back to help! He was past ready to go to heaven and live in paradise with our Lord and Savior. I look forward to seeing him again in heaven. In Jesus Precious Name. My parents adored him and are greeting him in heaven.

“ Billy Golladay and I were next door neighbors for many years in Manassas, Virginia. Over time, our very different occupations and backgrounds enabled us to help each other in many ways, and in the process, we became great friends. After we both moved, we lost contact. Then years later, we reconnected by telephone when he was essentially bedridden in a facility near his home in northern Virginia. We enjoyed reminiscing by phone for over a year before he passed. I'm thankful that we had the chance. He was a great friend. I will miss him. Tony Allen
